Dear Convention Delegates, Attendees, and Honored Guests:

On behalf of the National Association of Police Organizations (NAPO), welcome to New York City and our 39th Annual Convention! As always, we would like to thank our corporate and law enforcement sponsors for their generous financial support. Special thanks to the New York City PBA and the member groups from New York City and New Jersey for sponsoring many of this week's events. Without their financial support and tireless efforts, many of the convention events simply would not be possible.

With the continued demoralization of police, we should take this moment to recommit to our mission – to protect and advance the rights and interest of America's law enforcement officers. NAPO and our affiliates must continue to aggressively defend our officers in Congress, the Courts and the Media. It is through this lens that we tackle a busy and productive business agenda, during which time we'll review to date NAPO's accomplishments in the 115th Congress and set NAPO's legislative goals for the remainder of the session.

Our speakers and guests will discuss a wide range of topics geared towards the interests of the law enforcement community. In addition, time will be set aside to conduct the business of the Association, including the election of NAPO Officers, consideration of legislative priorities and resolutions, and the issuing of political endorsements.

NAPO has worked closely with the New York City PBA and our New York and New Jersey member groups to plan a memorable convention. If you need any suggestions for sightseeing or restaurants please check in with the NAPO registration desk. Be sure to stop by the NAPO hospitality room located on the second floor off the main lobby in the Ambassador Room.

Again, thank you for attending the 39th Annual Convention. We hope you enjoy your stay in New York City.

Sincerely,

Michael McHale
President

July 23 – 25, 2017

Dear Friends:

It is a pleasure to send greetings to everyone gathered for the 39th Annual Convention of the National Association of Police Organizations.

We recognize the important role of organizations that function as valuable resources for the professionals, associations, and members of a particular field, as the National Association of Police Organizations does for so many police unions, including the officers of the NYPD. The Empire State is home to some of the finest law enforcement agencies in the nation, and New Yorkers are fortunate to be served by the distinguished men and women who make up their proud ranks.

This weekend, you come together from all over the United States to network among your colleagues and to gain insights on a variety of timely and current topics at your professional seminars. Welcome to New York City and best wishes for a successful, productive meeting.

Warmest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

I wish to extend my most sincere congratulations as you gather for the National Association of Police Organizations' (NAPO) 39th Annual Convention. I am proud to recognize the selfless service of the law enforcement officers and citizens who make up NAPO's membership.

Since 1978, NAPO has labored tirelessly to protect the interests of American law enforcement officers through public education and policy advocacy. It is a profound honor to welcome the annual convention to New York, and I applaud all who helped make this event possible.

Again, congratulations on thirty-nine years of exemplary service, devotion, and success. I wish you an enjoyable time in New York and a memorable convention.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

It is a privilege to send greetings to everyone attending the National Association of Police Organization's 39th Annual Convention.

I am grateful for organizations like NAPO for committing themselves to working to serve the needs of members of the law enforcement community. The dedication to making positive changes on a national level in key issue areas for officers such as federal funding and federal policy that directly impacts the lives of those who devote themselves to safeguarding this country is important. I would also like to acknowledge your commitment to remaining aware and involved in the actions taken by the Executive and Legislative Branches that affect the interests of law enforcement officers, it demonstrates an admirable level of advocacy for members of your community.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful event and many more years of continued success.

Sincerely,

GENERAL INFORMATION

Admittance to all functions, including general sessions, receptions, meals, and the NAPO hospitality room, held during the convention will require a convention identification badge. Badge verification will be handled by the Sergeant-at-Arms, aided by NAPO staff.

Registration hours are as follows:

Saturday, July 22:	3:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Sunday, July 23:	12:00 p.m. – 12:45 p.m.

The convention officially kicks off Saturday evening with the Welcome Reception in the New York Atrium located on the ninth floor at the Westin New York Times Square Hotel. Name badges are required to attend.

Stop by the NAPO registration desk for the complete list of convention events and the most up to date shuttle schedules. All NAPO shuttles will depart from the hotel's main entrance located on the corner of West 44th Street. Advanced registration is required for all activities.

Be sure to stop by the NAPO Hospitality Room located in the Ambassador Room adjacent to the main hotel lobby on the second floor. The hospitality room will be open throughout the convention. Check the convention agenda for exact hours. Your Convention Badge will be required for admittance.

Please be sure to visit with our sponsors and stop by their exhibit booths located in the Majestic Foyer on the 5th floor. Drop your business card off with exhibitors for drawings that will be held at the end of the General Session on Monday.

We are excited you are here. Thank you for joining us for what promises to be a productive and fun-filled convention. If you have any questions or need assistance, please check with any NAPO staff member and we will do our very best to assist you.

NAPO's 39th Annual Convention

9/11 Memorial & Museum Tour

Tuesday, July 25, 2017

Be sure to join NAPO for an afternoon visit to the 9/11 Memorial & Museum. The 9/11 Memorial honors the lives of those who were lost and is a tribute to the past and a place of hope for the future. Spend time at the beautiful memorial and tour, at your leisure, the museum's expansive exhibits and many artifacts.

Please make your way to the corner of Greenwich and Liberty Streets by 1:45 p.m. For complimentary admission to the Museum you must enter the Museum with the NAPO group. The NYPD and NAPO Staff will assist with subway instructions. Additional logistics will be distributed at the conclusion of Tuesday's General Session.

Special thanks to the Port Authority Police Lieutenants Benevolent Association for organizing the tour.

This event is for registered conference attendees and exhibitors.
